

DIPLOMA IN COMMUNICATION/BACHELOR OF COMMUNICATION (6007)

Approved Abbreviation: DipComm/BComm
Western Sydney University Program Code: 6007
AQF Level: 7

CRICOS Code: 096970M

This program applies to students who commenced in 2021 or later.

Students should follow the program structure for the session start date relevant to the year they commenced.

For Commencement Year 2019 to 2020 please refer to 6007.2 - Diploma in Communication/Bachelor of Communication (<http://handbook.westernsydney.edu.au/hbook/course.aspx?course=6007.2>)

For Commencement Year 2017 to 2018 please refer to 6007.1 - Diploma in Communication/Bachelor of Communication (<http://handbook.westernsydney.edu.au/hbook/course.aspx?course=6007.1>)

The Bachelor of Communication encompasses a range of studies in the fields of communication, media and design including specialised studies in the major fields of Advertising, Journalism, Public Relations and Screen Media. Teaching includes both theory and practice with reference to real world contexts highlighting future career opportunities in a convergent digital media world. Through classwork, independent study and engagement with the multicultural nature of our communities, students develop an understanding of the local and international relevance of their chosen studies, with opportunities to develop and produce a range of media outcomes as applied research and professional projects throughout their studies. Through self-directed, team-based and problem-based learning strategies requiring active participation in the community and professional contexts, graduates learn to reflect and value ethical and intellectual conduct as well as respect for diversity and social justice principles.

The first year of this program is delivered by Western Sydney University The College, as an agent of Western Sydney University, via extended face-to-face hours in smaller learning environments. A Diploma in Communication exit point is also available at the end of the first year of the program.
