CRICOS Code: 042101C

This program applies to students who commenced in 2021 or later.

For Commencement Year 2019 - please refer to 1812.3 Master of Clinical Psychology (<http://handbook.westernsydney.edu.au/hbook/course.aspx?course=1812.3>)

For Commencement Year 2018 - please refer to 1812.2 Master of Clinical Psychology (<http://handbook.westernsydney.edu.au/hbook/course.aspx?course=1812.2>)

For Commencement Year 2016 or 2017 - please refer to 1812.1 Master of Clinical Psychology (<http://handbook.westernsydney.edu.au/hbook/course.aspx?course=1812.1>)

The Master of Clinical Psychology is designed to develop competent clinical psychologists.

The objective of the Master of Clinical Psychology is to provide two years' full time training in the professional practice of clinical psychology from which graduates will be eligible to apply for full registration as a psychologist and as a Clinical Psychology registrar. Following successful completion of the Master of Clinical Psychology, Clinical Psychology Registrars will need another 2 years of supervised clinical practice to be eligible to apply for endorsement as a Clinical Psychologist.

The program provides a thorough training in the knowledge and skills necessary to understand a range of mental health issues experienced within diverse contexts. Graduates will be able to implement a range of effective evidence-based interventions that are tailored to clients' needs and preferences. The scientist-practitioner model of training will be adopted to equip students with specialised competencies through the completion of specified coursework, a research project and 1,000 hours of supervised practice in clinical and other appropriate settings.

Study Mode

Two years full-time or four years part-time.

Admission

Admission to the Master of Clinical Psychology program is based on academic merit, two referee reports and performance at a selection interview to determine capability for practitioner competency. For domestic students, selection interviews are held between October and December each year; for international students these are held once the application has been received.

Applications from Australian and New Zealand citizens and holders of permanent resident visas must be made via Universities Admissions Centre (UAC) by 31 October at the following link: <http://www.uac.edu.au>. Late or incomplete applications will not be considered.

International applicants must apply directly to Western Sydney University via the International Office.

Admission Criteria for Master of Clinical Psychology

Places will be offered to qualified applicants based on academic merit across years 2 and 3 of an undergraduate degree in Psychology and interview performance according to the following admission criteria.

- Completion of an Australian Psychology Accreditation Council (APAC) accredited four-year undergraduate Psychology degree that includes:
- (1) Undergraduate honours level of at least Class 2 upper level (2A or 2.1 Honours) or equivalent; and
- (2) Indicative academic achievement, based on entry in previous years, is a grade point average of 5.8 or higher (counting Year 2 to 3 as 50% and Year 4 as 50%) ;

- Applicants, whose degree was completed more than 10 years prior to the year of entry will not be admitted unless they hold current full registration with the Psychology Board of Australia.
- Submission of two referees reports; and
- Participation in an interview, by invitation, with the School of Psychology.

No deferrals will be accepted for this program.

Academic and Professional Referee Reports

Academic and Professional referee reports are to be provided via the Post-Graduate Programs Reference Request System.
