BACHELOR OF INFORMATION SYSTEMS ADVANCED/ BACHELOR OF LAWS (2801)

Approved Abbreviation: BISAdv/LLB
Western Sydney University Program Code: 2801
AQF Level: 7

CRICOS Code: 095800D

This program applies to students who commenced in 2022 or later.

This program enables multi-skilling in information systems and law, enabling increased marketability in these diverse career fields. The Bachelor of Laws equips students with the professional legal skills and knowledge required by the Legal Profession Admission Board (LPAB) for admission to legal practice in NSW, and to solve legal and non-legal problems. Students can undertake specialised study in topical local and international law and practical experiences. In the Information Systems Advanced component of the program, students learn about computing and information technology in a business context. The program extends learning available in Bachelor of Information Systems through advanced activities including extension projects, hands on business projects and research training. Mentoring and access to some industry partners and research groups will enable students to develop skills and networks that apply directly in industry.

Early Exit

Students may exit this program on completion of 80 credit points with a 2827 Diploma in Laws (exit only) (https://hbook.westernsydney.edu.au/archives/2022-2023/programs/diploma-laws-exit-only/)

Study Mode

Five years full-time or ten years part-time. Information systems subjects are offered at the Parramatta campus and Law subjects are offered at Campbelltown and Parramatta campuses. Students may be required to travel between campuses in order to complete their subjects.
