

MASTER OF PUBLIC HEALTH (4702)

Approved Abbreviation: MPubHlth

Western Sydney University Program Code: 4702

AQF Level: 9

CRICOS Code: 014002E

This program applies to students who commenced in Spring 2021 or later.

Students should follow the program structure for the session start date relevant to the year they commenced.

Commencement Year 2020 - 4702.3 Master of Public Health (<http://handbook.westernsydney.edu.au/hbook/course.aspx?course=4702.3>)

Commencement Year 2016 - 4702.2 Master of Public Health (<http://handbook.westernsydney.edu.au/hbook/course.aspx?course=4702.2>)

Commencement Year 2015 - 4702.1 Master of Public Health (<http://handbook.westernsydney.edu.au/hbook/course.aspx?course=4702.1>)

Commencement Year 2010 - 2014 - 4571.3 Master of Public Health (<http://handbook.westernsydney.edu.au/hbook/course.aspx?course=4571.3>)

The Master of Public Health focuses on the comprehensive assessment of all determinants of health, which include broader social and environmental factors in addition to physical risk factors. Learning opportunities are aimed at developing the essential knowledge and required skills to effectively assess and respond to emerging public health issues, including evaluation of public health programs and disaster planning and management. Graduates of this program will be exposed to academic and industry leaders who share their experience and knowledge to facilitate insight into the contemporary public health issues. Students will develop skills, scholarship and professional development in the fields of health policy, social determinants of health, epidemiology, biostatistics, applied research and evidenced-based practice, as well as an understanding of recent developments in the discipline.

The Master of Public Health is a 2-year program, however, students may seek advanced standing to enrol in 1-year or 1.5-year programs, based on an assessment of their undergraduate degree and professional experience.

Study Mode

Two years full-time, four years part-time. One and a half years full time or one year full time programs are also available, depending upon entry qualifications (see Pathways listed under Program Structure below).

Work Integrated Learning

Western Sydney University seeks to enhance student learning experiences by enabling students to engage in the culture, expectations and practices of their profession or discipline. This program includes a placement or other community-based unpaid practical experience.

There is an optional work component available in this program. Please contact the Program Advisor listed above for information.

International students should be aware that if an elective is a requirement of the program but the work itself was not registered with CRICOS, students can still complete these electives but it would be counted towards the work limitation. For more details, refer to the 'Work Integrated Learning (WIL) for international students' website.
