Description This online subject in the Bachelor of Business Administration enables students to put work experience to practical use in the academic study of business and management. It provides an introduction to work-based learning and helps students to develop the study skills needed in higher education. This subject aims to develop skills to improve performance at work - and as such is quite different from many other subjects that are designed around a particular subject. In contrast, this subject provides an opportunity to make decisions about what to learn to improve performance in the workplace.
