

ECONOMY AND SOCIETY, MINOR (0319)

Western Sydney University Minor Code: 0319

Available to students in other Western Sydney University

Programs: Yes. Check that your program has the available credit points required to complete the subjects in this field of study. Any requisite requirements must also be met. Consult your Program Advisor for further advice.

The Economy and Society minor is a multi-disciplinary social science academic program centred on human behaviour in the creation of sustainable economies. The minor will equip students with analytical skills to understand complex economic issues from a broader social science perspective. It will also examine the politics of policy making. This area of academic and intellectual interest complements any major from within the Bachelor of Social Science.

Note: Subjects for this minor are offered on different campuses, potential students should ensure that they are able to manage their study and travel before enrolling in this minor.
