

BACHELOR OF COMMUNICATION / BACHELOR OF INTERNATIONAL STUDIES (1932)

Western Sydney University Program Code: 1932
AQF Level: 7

CRICOS Code: 114850K

This program applies to students who commenced in 2024 or later.

This double degree permits students to undertake multi-skilling into two diverse career paths, providing enhanced marketability into multiple areas of expertise.

The Bachelor of International Studies examines the relationships of politics, nations, societies, cultures, and history across a range of countries. Students will analyse national and global issues, focusing on the way global forces and interactions increasingly influence domestic politics. It will also address the most important challenges that the world's communities face including climate change; religion, peace and conflict; the rich-poor gap; and sustainability. International Studies is an interdisciplinary field drawing on politics, economics, sociology, and history. Students will apply their knowledge and skills to real life scenarios through core subjects and the major in Global Politics and International Relations.

The Bachelor of Communication encompasses a wide range of subjects in the field of communication with a core program of media studies, practice and theory, and specialised Major sequences in advertising, journalism and public relations.

Students will also have opportunities to enhance their skills and knowledge through internships, volunteering and international study and travel.

- Director of Academic Program - Dr Nicole Bridges

Study Mode

Four years full-time or eight years part-time.
