

DIPLOMA/BACHELOR OF INFORMATION AND COMMUNICATIONS TECHNOLOGY (HEALTH INFORMATION MANAGEMENT) (6038)

Approved Abbreviation: DipICT/BICT(HIM)

Western Sydney University Program Code: 6038

AQF Level: 7

CRICOS Code: 096984E

This program is suspended from Term 1, 2025, no new students will be admitted from this session.

This program applies to students who commenced in Term 1, 2018 or later.

The increasing use of electronic health records requires the accurate and efficient capture, maintenance, security and reporting of health information and the Bachelor of Information Communications Technology (Health Information Management) program will provide students with the knowledge and skills required to build software systems and undertake roles relating to the classification, coding and management of health information within a healthcare setting.

This program will offer students the opportunity to seek employment in health information management and/or clinical coding, recognised as workforce skills shortage areas. Specific content areas addressed include Health Informatics, Systems Analysis and Design, Medical Terminology, Database Design and Development, Healthcare Data Environments, Clinical Classification and Coding, Programming, Web Development, Computer Networking, Health Service Management, Activity Based Funding and Data Quality and Healthcare Software and Systems.

The program also offers direct industry experience via a 20-day work placement.

The first year of this program is delivered by Western Sydney University The College as an agent of Western Sydney University via extended face-to-face hours in smaller learning environments.

A Diploma in Information and Communications Technology (Health Information Management) is also available as an exit point at the end of the first year of the program.

For more information on Western Sydney University, The College, please refer to their web site.
