

DIPLOMA IN SOCIAL SCIENCE/BACHELOR OF TOURISM AND EVENT MANAGEMENT (6047)

Western Sydney University Program Code: 6047

CRICOS Code: 110882A

NOTE: This program is currently not taking any new enrolments.

This program has been suspended from 2023.

This program applies to students who commenced in Term 1, 2023 or later.

Students should follow the program structure for the session start date relevant to the year they commenced.

For Commencement Year Term 2, 2021 to Term 3, 2022, please refer to 6030.2 - Diploma in Social Science/Bachelor of Tourism Management (<http://handbook.westernsydney.edu.au/hbook/course.aspx?course=6030.2>)

This degree combines social science, business and marketing subjects to prepare graduates for professional roles in tourism, events, and the visitor economy. The Bachelor of Tourism and Event Management has been developed with industry to ensure students develop the skills and knowledge desired by employers. Students complete fieldwork, engage with industry and government stakeholders, and are provided with opportunities for international fieldtrips and placements. A final-year professional placement allows students to gain further industry experience and provides a stepping-stone into employment.

The first year of this program is delivered by Western Sydney University The College, as an agent of Western Sydney University, via extended face-to-face hours in smaller learning environments. A Diploma in Social Science exit point is also available at the end of the first year of the course.

For more information on Western Sydney University, The College, please refer to their web site.
