

GRADUATE CERTIFICATE IN COUNSELLING (1648)

Approved Abbreviation: GradCertCouns

Western Sydney University Program Code: 1648

AQF Level: 8

This program applies to students who commenced in 2016 or later.

Counselling is a cross-disciplinary pathway into a career in helping human beings in distress. In counselling clients gain self-understanding, expand interpersonal capacities and become more able to change through a dedicated helping relationship. This program focuses on the process of creating of a therapeutic environment for clients and on cultivating the high levels of skill, sensitivity, self-knowledge and ethical conduct required of the counselling professional. Theories and approaches are taught and critically examined in the light of their contribution to a contemporary relational understanding and practice of counselling. This program is aimed specifically at graduates in any discipline who can demonstrate the personal qualities required for this demanding profession.

Students who wish to meet Professional Training Standards are advised to enrol in the Graduate Diploma in Counselling.

Study Mode

One year part-time.
