

GRADUATE CERTIFICATE IN SECONDARY TEACHING

Effective from: 2022

Approved Abbreviation: GradCertSecTeach

Western Sydney University Program Code: 1914

AQF Level: 8

This program applies to students who commenced in 2022 or later.

Students should follow the program structure for the session start date relevant to the year they commenced.

For Commencement Year 2019 - 2021 - please refer to: 1846.2 Graduate Certificate in Education (Curriculum Specialisation) (<http://handbook.westernsydney.edu.au/hbook/course.aspx?course=1846.2>)

The Graduate Certificate in Secondary Teaching provides a pathway for qualified secondary teachers to expand the number of teaching areas for which they are eligible to teach. Applicants to this program can be either currently working in secondary schools or seeking employment in secondary schools. This program comprises two curriculum subjects that cover NSW syllabus requirements for Years 7-10 and Years 11-12. In addition, students will undertake one in-school professional experience block and one subject in either student wellbeing, curriculum and assessment design or leadership. Applicants must have a minimum of four undergraduate pre-requisite subjects as required by the NSW Education Standards Authority (NESA) (<https://www.educationstandards.nsw.edu.au/wps/portal/nesa/home/>) for the area of study the applicant is intending to teach. Academic program advice should be sought.

Study Mode

One year part-time.

Work Integrated Learning

Western Sydney University seeks to enhance student learning experiences by enabling students to engage in the culture, expectations and practices of their profession or discipline. This program includes a placement or other community-based unpaid practical experience.

There is a mandatory work component required for completion of this program. Please contact the Program Advisor listed above for information.

Admission

To be eligible to enrol in this program, students must have a secondary teaching qualification and a minimum of 4 undergraduate subjects as required by the NSW Education Standards Authority (NESA) (<https://www.educationstandards.nsw.edu.au/wps/portal/nesa/home/>) for the area of study the applicant is intending to teach. Students are advised to seek academic project advice as to this.

Students are advised to seek academic project advice as to this.

If applicants require additional undergraduate subjects to meet the area of study, these may be completed as non-award study at Western Sydney University or any other University.

Applications from Australian and New Zealand citizens and holders of permanent resident visas must be made via the Universities Admissions Centre (UAC). Use the links below to apply via UAC or Western Sydney University. Applications made directly to Western Sydney do not have an application fee.

Applicants who have undertaken studies overseas may have to provide proof of proficiency in English. Local and International applicants who are applying through the Universities Admissions Centre (UAC) will find details of minimum English proficiency requirements and acceptable proof on the UAC website. Local applicants applying directly to the University should also use the information provided on the UAC website.
