Handbook summary 2022-2023

The Master of Teaching (Secondary) is an accredited professional teaching qualification for students possessing an appropriate bachelor's degree. It prepares graduates for careers in secondary school settings and other educational fields in NSW, other Australian states and internationally. The degree provides a professional qualification in secondary education, and is taught on campus and in schools, through innovative blended teaching and learning approaches. Graduates meet the Australian Professional Standards for Graduate Teachers, required for registration with the NSW Education Standards Authority. There are two exit points: the Graduate Diploma in Educational Studies (Secondary) and Master of Educational Studies for students not seeking a professional teaching qualification. The Graduate Certificate in Educational Studies (Secondary) is a Professional Development qualification for currently accredited teachers.

Handbook summary 2024

The Master of Teaching (Secondary) is an accredited professional teaching qualification for students possessing an appropriate bachelor's degree in a secondary subject area. It prepares graduates for careers in secondary school settings and other educational fields in NSW, other Australian states and internationally. The degree provides deep engagement in secondary education, focusing on innovative and evidence-based approaches to teaching and learning and the development of strong pedagogical content knowledge. It prepares students for their teaching career by emphasising pedagogical approaches and culturally responsive teaching practices that enable diverse learners to access learning experiences, effective classroom management practices, and using assessment and feedback to guide and enhance student learning. Graduates meet the Australian Professional Standards for Teachers, required for registration with the NSW Education Standards Authority (NESA). There are two exit points: the Graduate Diploma in Educational Studies (Secondary) and Master of Educational Studies for students not seeking an accredited teaching qualification.

Program Logic

The Program Logic is embedded throughout all Initial Teacher Education programs at Western Sydney University. It explains how each subject contributes to the journey to become a Graduate Teacher. The Program Logic includes three phases: Foundation, Development and Transition. In each of these phases, pre-service teachers develop essential knowledge and skills by learning about evidence-based pedagogies and practices, enabling their successful transition to teaching.

Foundation: Pre-service teachers will develop fundamental knowledge, skills, and attributes to support the beginning of their journey to become a teacher.

Development: Pre-service teachers will strengthen their pedagogical content knowledge, understanding of classroom management, and evidence-based pedagogical practices.

Transition: Pre-service teachers will consolidate and apply the knowledge, skills, and attributes required for success as a Graduate Teacher, using evidence to inform and strengthen pedagogical practice.

Early Exits

Students may exit this program on completion of 80 credit points with a 1715 Graduate Diploma in Educational Studies (Secondary) (exit only) (<https://hbook.westernsydney.edu.au/programs/graduate-diploma-educational-studies-secondary-exit-only/>)

Study Mode

Two years full-time or four years part-time.
