

BUSM 3096 SPORT INDUSTRY INTERNSHIP

Credit Points 10

Description This subject provides students with an opportunity to engage with the sport industry through an internship. Students are provided with a unique opportunity to develop their management skills through observation of sport management practitioners and learn through a practical "hands-on" setting. Under the guidance of an accomplished industry professional and academic mentor, students apply theoretical concepts, knowledge and skills acquired in workshops in professional sport, recreation and aligned settings. Students engage in peer review, developing skills in giving and receiving feedback in a responsible and constructive manner. This subject provides a foundation to critique the professional practice of sport and allied services, to network with sports organisations and seek out ongoing employment in the sector.
