Description This subject offers a survey of one or more of the following: drama, drama on film and film drama. It will examine key concepts in cinema theory, dramatic form and film production. Comparison may be made between theatre texts and film adaptations related to the work of specific dramatists; or drama texts may be considered in themselves (often with the screening of filmed versions of these dramas). Alternatively, film itself will be considered as a distinct dramatic form whose contours will be traced in relation to the work of important directors. Viewing films will form an integral part of this subject and students will be expected to attend screenings of films as well as a lecture and tutorial.
