

PERF 1010 MUSIC PERFORMANCE 1

Credit Points 10

Legacy Code 102553

Coordinator Brendan Smyly (<https://directory.westernsydney.edu.au/search/name/Brendan+Smyly/>)

Description In this subject, students will develop their performance skills through participating in three modularised workshops. The first two workshops will run in parallel with each other and will be rotated: module 1 will focus on improvisation; and module 2 will focus on (western or non-western) music from an oral tradition. Module 3 will then extend students' skills in reading and arranging music, utilising their preferred performing media (voice or instrument). In this third module, they will perform set technical tasks (such as scales and arpeggios) and, in groups, they will arrange and perform one set piece of music from a basic notated score, and they will choose, arrange and perform another piece. They will perform one piece chosen from modules 1, 2, or 3 in a public venue on campus. The subject will also introduce basic music business skills, such as how to advertise and mount a public performance.

Assumed Knowledge

Students to undertake audition/interview. On entry into this subject students need to demonstrate that they can perform music at an equivalent level of the audition standard.

Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this subject, students should be able to:

- perform music in large and small group combinations
- create improvisations
- perform music from an oral tradition
- demonstrate proficiency in the performance of set technical tasks
- implement strategies for arranging a set piece from a basic notated score
- rehearse and perform in small groups a set piece from a basic score
- devise a business plan for promoting and mounting a performance as part of a short reflective essay on the process of creating and performing a musical performance
- perform the music created in one of the three modules in a public venue
- Those attending Art of Sound will be able to: participate meaningfully in Art of Sound activities and projects, working with students across the Music program to develop collaborative, technical and performance skills. Involvement in Art of Sound will culminate in attending the Creativity Unlimited Music Festival.

Subject Content

The subject will include practical and theoretical tasks pertinent to music performance as follows:

- Rehearsals leading to performances of music from an oral tradition (western or non-western)
- Improvisation in large and small group combinations, using notated and non-notated formats, and utilising a variety of improvising styles, techniques and approaches
- Rehearsals and performance in small groups of set technical tasks, such as scales and arpeggios
- Arrangement of a prescribed simple notated piece from a pertinent repertoire in students' preferred performing media (voice or instrument) for group rehearsal and performance
- Arrangement of a piece of music chosen by students to rehearse and perform in their preferred performing media (voice or instrument)
- Essay on contemporary music performance.
