

TEAC 7089 PRIMARY ENGLISH AND LITERACY 1

Credit Points 10

Legacy Code 101579

Coordinator Katherine Lowe (https://directory.westernsydney.edu.au/search/name/Katherine Lowe/)

Description This subject is designed to explore key concepts associated with the teaching of the English Key Learning Area in the K-6 years, set in the broader context of a contemporary new literacies environment. It will examine the processes involved in the teaching of English with a focus on effective pedagogical practices, responsive teaching and explicit and systematic teaching of phonics and reading traditional print-based literacies and multiliteracies. Students will investigate teaching, learning, assessment and the key processes and components of learning to read using a range of factual and literary texts, involving every day and specialised knowledge for a range of readers/viewers. Students will be introduced to children's literature and authentic texts for the development of students' reading skills and abilities. Students will develop understandings of effective pedagogy and practice within the area of K-6 English and investigate the NSW English K-10 (focus on K-6) syllabus. This subject is included in the Development Phase of the Master of Teaching program.

Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this subject, students should be able to:

1. Examine the key processes and components in how children learn to read (phonological and phonemic awareness, letter/sound correspondence, phonic knowledge, vocabulary, reading fluency, reading comprehension)
2. Examine the aims, outcomes, and content of relevant English syllabus and curriculum documents with focus on oral language and communication, understanding texts and responding to literature.
3. Identify the learning needs of diverse learners: English as an Additional Language or Dialect, Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander learners, culturally and linguistically diverse learners, and learners with special needs, including low socio-economic, and gifted and talented students.
4. Review current children's literature, including Australian literature.
5. Evaluate strategies and concepts involved in reading to learn through the integration of literacy with other KLAs.
6. Apply a range of effective pedagogical practices and culturally and linguistically responsive strategies for planning teaching and assessing the explicit and systematic teaching of phonics, the reception and interpretation of literary, factual and multimodal texts.

7. Plan further instruction based on evaluations, including formative and summative assessment of emergent readers learning needs through collection and analysis of student data and evidence-based practices.
