WELF 2003 COMMUNITY WORK AND COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT (BLOCK MODE)

Credit Points 10

Legacy Code 101774

Coordinator Jim Ife (https://directory.westernsydney.edu.au/search/name/Jim Ife/)

Description This subject introduces theories and skills in community work and community development. It begins with an analysis of the terms community and community development and their competing meanings and discourses. This is followed by an examination of the breadth and scope of community work at a local, state and global level. The subject will provide an opportunity for students to develop an understanding of the environmental, political, economic and cultural issues relevant to community work and community development practice. The subject will explore examples of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities, to illustrate the subject content.

School Social Sciences

Discipline Social Work

Student Contribution Band HECS Band 4 10cp

Check your fees via the Fees (https://www.westernsydney.edu.au/currentstudents/current_students/fees/) page.

Level Undergraduate Level 2 subject

Equivalent Subjects WELF 2002 - Community Work and Community Development LGYA 7651 - Community Work and Community Development AREPMetro

Restrictions

Students must be enrolled in program 1689 Bachelor of Community and Social Development and must have successfully completed 60 credit points at Level 1.

Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this subject, students should be able to:

- Critically analyse the concepts of community and community development, and identify competing meanings and discursive practices;
- Identify the ideologies and values underpinning different models of community work and community development;
- Articulate a critical awareness of the theoretical assumptions underpinning current practices of community development;
- 4. Demonstrate critical understanding of the value of different models of community development in a diversity of contexts;
- 5. Critically analyse a community development initiative with an Indigenous community.

Subject Content

Concepts of community and community development Ideologies and visions underlying community and community Development

Theorising community work and community development

Models of community development - linking to theory Models of community work practice

Skills for community work and community development practice Social Justice framework for understanding community development Community work and community development in a globalised world Indigenous communities and community development? issues and challenges

Assessment

The following table summarises the standard assessment tasks for this subject. Please note this is a guide only. Assessment tasks are regularly updated, where there is a difference your Learning Guide takes precedence.

Туре	Length	Percent	Threshold	Individual/ Mandatory Group Task
Essay	1,500 words	30	N	Individual
Presentation a Community Developme Initiative	•	25	N	Individual
Report on Community Developme Initiative	y words	45	N	Individual